

Complaints

Policy

Date adopted – 10th January 2018

1. Introduction

Complaints can be valuable because they may provide a chance to put things right if there has been an error, and to make sure that the same mistake is not repeated.

The Parish Council is eager to listen to people's comments about its performance and is committed to responding to complaints in a positive manner. Complaints can be valuable because they can give us a chance to put things right if there has been a mistake. We will make full use of any information arising out of a complaint as to make sure that the mistake is not repeated. .

2. Definition of a Complaint

A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by, the Parish Council, Councillors or staff which affects an individual or a group of individuals.

What the complaints procedure will deal with:

The complaints procedure will deal with matters of maladministration. Some examples include:

- neglect or unjustified delay in making a decision/taking an action
- malice, bias, or unfair discrimination
- failure to provide information when reasonably requested
- providing misleading or inaccurate information
- inefficiency, ineffectiveness, bad and unprofessional practice or conduct

2.1 What the complaints procedure will not deal with:

- Complaints for which there is a legal remedy or which are already the subject of legal proceedings
- Complaints about council employees – the Parish Council operates alternative procedures to deal with grievances or disciplinary matters against staff.

5. Stages of the Procedure

The stages of the procedure are designed to provide the complainant with a thorough and fair means of redress where appropriate and to provide a framework within which officers should work.

5.1 Everyday problems, queries and comments

The Council receives queries and comments as part of its day-to-day running, and they should not all be regarded as complaints. These are routine and are generally resolved quickly to the customer's satisfaction.

5.2 Informal Complaint

During the course of daily business, minor complaints may be made to officers about the services provided. The Clerk or a member of staff will usually deal with these.

It is not appropriate for every comment to be treated as a formal complaint. Every effort should be made to deal with these problems immediately, either by providing information, instigating the appropriate action or explaining a decision.

5.3 Formal Complaint (Stage 1)

A customer may wish to make a formal complaint directly, or may be unsatisfied with the outcome of an informal complaint and may wish to take the matter further. This will be recorded as a complaint if submitted in writing to the Clerk and passed to the appropriate Officer to investigate.

Timescales: Acknowledgement – within five working days

Investigation completed – 10 working days thereafter

Or Progress Reports issued – 10 working days thereafter

5.4 Review of Investigation and Complaint (Stage 2)

If the complainant is not satisfied with the Investigating Officer's response, should be advised of its right to have the complaint referred to a Complaints Panel which will review the complaint.

Timescales: Advice given within five working days

If the complainant then advises that they wish to go through stage three of the procedure, this should be acknowledged within five working days advising when the Complaints Panel will meet to discuss the issue

5.5 Complaints Panel (Stage 3)

If the issue remains unresolved and the complainant has advised that it wishes to exercise their right to have the matter referred to the Complaints Panel, the matter should be referred to an appropriate meeting convened by the Chairman and Clerk of the Council. The outcome of all formal complaints dealt with by the Panel will be reported to the next full Council meeting.

5.6 The procedure at the Complaints meeting shall be as follows:

5.6.1 The Complaints Panel shall consist of the 3 members of the Council.

5.6.2 A minimum of 10 working days notice of such a panel will be given. At the time the complainant is notified in writing of the panel date, it will also be requested to present any material/documentation that they wish to give in evidence to the meeting no later than 5 working days (Monday to Friday excluding Bank Holidays) prior to the meeting

5.6.3 The public and press are not permitted attendance at meetings of the Panel although the Chairman will report on the outcome of the meeting at the following full Council meeting, if appropriate in part 2 of the agenda.

5.6.4 The order of business for the complaints meeting shall be in accordance with the National Association of Local Councils' guidance as follows:

(i) Chairman to introduce everyone.

(ii) Chairman to explain procedure.

(iii) Complainant (or representative) to outline grounds for complaint.

(iv) Members to ask any question of the complainant.

(v) The Clerk will be in attendance to explain the Council's position.

(vi) Members to ask any question of the Clerk.

(vii) Clerk and complainant to be asked to leave the room while

(vii) The panel decides whether or not the grounds for the complaint have been made. (If a point of clarification is necessary, both parties to be invited back).

(ix) Clerk or other proper officer and complainant return to hear decision, or to be advised of when the decision will be made.

5.6.5 Following the conclusion of the meeting, the complainant will be advised and that it is final with no right of further appeal, will be confirmed in writing within 5 working days together with details of any action to be taken.

5.6.6 Unreasonable and Vexatious Complaints

There will be circumstances when a complainant persists in wishing to proceed when it clearly has no reasonable basis, or when the Council has already taken reasonable action in response, or where some other process, whether through the courts or some other recognised procedure, should or has been taken.

These matters should be referred to the Clerk with a summary of the issues and of the attempts made to resolve the complaint. She may, in such circumstances, decide that no further action can usefully be taken in response to the complainant, and inform the complainant so, making it clear that only new and substantive issues will merit a response.

5.7 Anonymous Complaints

Anybody communicating with the Parish Council is expected to provide their full name and address, telephone and email address if any. Anonymous complaints should be referred to the Clerk but it will not be investigated.

5.8 Resolution and Remedies

The aim in dealing with complaints is to reach a fair decision. Where a complaint is found to be justified, consideration may need to be given to the question of an appropriate remedy, as well as an apology (the Clerk and Chairman to make any final decision regarding remedy unless such remedy involves the payment of a financial sum in which case a resolution of the Council will be required). An explanation of the decision will be given where appropriate.
